

JOINT STATEMENT OF LINAH KEZA'S FAMILY
AND THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE FOR THE METROPOLIS
22 NOVEMBER 2018

The family of Linah Keza and the representatives of the Metropolitan Police have met to discuss the lessons that have been learned following Linah's tragic murder in July 2013. The police have offered Linah's family an apology. The family are pleased to hear that changes have been made to the approach taken to domestic abuse by the police since Linah's death. Both the police and Linah's family are confident that something positive can come out of these sad events. They will continue to work together to help other victims of domestic abuse.
